

Wellesley Congregational Church Privacy Policy Statement

Wellesley (Village) Congregational Church is a United Church of Christ religious institution with two campuses in Wellesley and Weston Massachusetts.

The purpose of this privacy policy statement is to comply with US regulations by stipulating how we collect, use and protect our church members personal information.

The types of information our church may obtain from our church members may include any of the following: Name, email address, address, and phone number. This information is collected with our online member form or from church visitors who fill out our pew pads during worship.

The purpose of our data collection is to maintain contact with any church visitors or church members who are interested in receiving information from us about upcoming events and worship services.

The data we collect from church visitors and church members is kept in our secured database and never shared with third parties under any circumstances.

Visitors and members have the right to to access, update or delete any personal data that has been shared with us.

Additionally, SMS consent will not be shared with third parties under any circumstances.

Please contact our church administrator at: office@wellesleyvillagechurch.org if you have any questions or concerns regarding our privacy policy.